"Best of Marrakech tour"

Jalan Jalan and familiarize ourselves around Marrakech with a reputable tour guide, Abdul from Marrakech Guided Tours.

For half a day, we shall see great architecture and go through the winding souks in the medina and learnt about the regular day to day lives of how Moroccans conduct their business from baking bread, cooking in tagines (different pot shape to the tagine) and go off the beaten track into the winding alleys and corridors of Marrakech.

We can go for the Marrakech Hidden Sites tour with Abdul:

09:00 - 16:00

We will visit the two valleys , the first is the Ourika valley. We will stop for a visit at the local Berber village market where the locals gather for their weekly shopping if its a day for the Market.

On the way if we want to experience a camel ride in the countryside , we will go for an optional 20 minutes ride .

Then we visit the Argan oil cooperative. It is a locally produced oil found only in Morocco, and hand made by women . It is very labour intensive and the produce is a rich oil with amazing properties for skin, and delicious taste for cooking.

Then we will go off road to the second valley (Asni valley). We admire the scenic route and stop at any locations that is worth it to take photos.

Once at the Berber village we stop for tea in a traditional family house.

This is followed by a delicious lunch (soup, salad, couscous or tagine Berber, fruits). This is also a great opportunity to meet some local Berber people and kids from the villages and have the possibility to give them some sweets, or maybe even some old clothes you may don't want anymore and that you could bring with you to Morocco. You can also bring school stationery like pencils or paint, as it is always needed.

After lunch we will arrive in the second valley: Asni valley and we will stop to admire Toubkal mountains (4165m Altitude) There is the possibility to go for a walk.

The price for a day trip is €150euro (SGD251) for 2 person the lunch in a berber family is 10 euro ($16.78) per person in a 4x4 Toyota Land Cruiser.
